Artists Supporting Artist

A small nonprofit launches a 24-hour, 24 countries worldwide festival to raise funds for Artists around the world

November 17, 2020, Miami, Florida, beginning at 12:00 PM EST on Saturday, February 20th, 2021 through Sunday, February 21st, 2021, Sybarite Productions will produce the infamous LOVEisLOVE showcase as a 24 hour online worldwide festival. The full day will feature local artists, DJs, musical performances and dance performances from 24 different regions (New York, Miami, Atlanta, California, New Orleans, Puerto Rico, Caribbean (Trinidad, Jamaica, Barbados), Canada, Kenya, Ghana, South Africa, Morocco, Nigeria, Congo/Gabon/Angola, Senegal, London, France, Germany, Italy, Taiwan, Japan, Brazil, Colombia, and India).

Acting as an official fundraiser for Sybarite Productions, Inc. 501c3 Artist Relief Fund, LOVEisLOVE WORLDWIDE is offered to the public free of charge and will be collecting donations to distribute to participating artists in need.

LOVEisLOVE WORLDWIDE and its goal of raising funds for artists, is a day of honoring artistic talent and celebrating LOVE and UNITY through the arts. It is a testament of the interconnectedness of the global artist community and our ability to support each other during challenging times.

ABOUT:

Fifteen years running, LOVEisLOVE is a New York City based quarterly charity fundraiser that showcases the works of the top dancers, choreographers and musicians of New York and beyond. Simultaneously, the stage is framed by artists painting live throughout the night, offering the audience both the ability to view completed works as well as the process of creation from these young artists. The evening, consistently selling out at a capacity of 800+, is guaranteed to leave all participants inspired and amazed.
